FEBRUARY 2018

PIG BANQUET 2018 - SATURDAY, APRIL 7TH 2018!

The Alumni Council – under Kelly Linster’s ‘91 leadership – has laid out a schedule for Phi’s annual Pig Banquet weekend. According to Kelly, this is a great opportunity to celebrate four floors of soup-to-nuts renovation and to launch new traditions like an annual alumni initiation ceremony. “We have so much to celebrate at the House That Brotherhood Built,” said Kelly, “including a model undergraduate chapter, a new home, solid finances, and most of all, a rock-solid, engaged brotherhood encompassing multiple generations. Please mark your calendars for Pig Banquet 2018!”

The Hilton Garden Inn will be the weekend’s command central. A room block has been organized. Plan B is Home 2 Suites. See contact numbers below to make your arrangements.

CAMPAIGN BY THE NUMBERS!

- March 2011 - Phi Chapter Alumni Association recommends exploration of a capital campaign in anticipation of 100-year anniversary

- February 2012 - Alumni Council decides to undertake a total property rehabilitation and explore the feasibility of a supporting capital campaign

- December 2012 - IvyPartners recommends proceeding with a five-year capital campaign after receiving input from 38 alumni from five states representing over 60 years of history at Φ Chapter

- May 2013 - 12-man campaign committee recruited to undertake project; "quiet" fundraising begins October 2013.

- April 2017 - Centennial Celebration - 370 or 31% of alumni participating in the campaign - $25,000 shy of our $1.55 million goal; in 48 hours $187,526 is raised through donations, pledges, a rifle-raffle and auction proceeds

- August 2017 - 28 brothers move in after a year away

- Under Russ Handegard's '72 oversight, architectural plans drawn by Jeff Wrede '92, and sweat equity contributed by multiple alumni and undergrads, the chapter has incurred $1.2 million in expenses to date; less than anticipated

- The campaign, with over 373 brothers contributing (31.5% of brothers), has raised $1,529,089; donations are coming in earlier than expected. With 2018 and 2019 being the final two years of most pledges, the chapter has received over 77% of gifts.

- Budgeting for a $450,000 mortgage, Phi Chapter has only one small loan of $130,000; $30,000 will be repaid in February 2018

- Treasurer Jason Gates is on target to retire all debt in 2019 as pledges of $333,300 are collected

NATIONAL HONORS PHI MEMBER DEREK HATZENBUHLER WITH 2017 REGINALD E.F. COLLEY AWARD

Phi Chapter's former president, Derek J. Hatzenbuhler was honored by Theta Chi Fraternity as the 2017 recipient of the Reginald E.F. Colley Award. First presented in 1929, the award is Theta Chi's most prestigious collegiate honor and annually recognizes distinguished service to alma mater, fraternity and community.

Brother Hatzenbuhler has gone above and beyond in promoting primacy of Alma Mater and perpetuating the ideals of the Fraternity. "I still can't really believe that I was honored with the Colley Award," Derek stated. "I went from a freshman looking to transfer to another university to a leader in my chapter and on campus, and that is all due to my brothers pushing me to take on more responsibility and to grow as a person."

Derek joined Phi Chapter during the fall 2015 semester and took an immediate interest in leadership, which included being nominated to serve as Secretary in 2016. During his pledge process, he was recognized as the New Member MVP, and became a donor to the house renovation campaign.

On campus, Hatzenbuhler became involved with NDSU Student Government serving as a senator, and as a member of the Civic Engagement and Memorial Union Gallery Art Boards. Since joining student government, he has twice been recognized as Member of the Week. He has been a member of the Photography Club, Public Relations Student Society of America, and the Bison Information Network. As a member of the Advertising Club, he participated in the National Student Advertising Competition on the presentation team and served as the club's Art Director.

Within the Fargo community, Derek has extended the assisting hand in many ways. He has been a volunteer for Special Olympics, WishFast (a local chapter of the Make-A-Wish foundation), participated in NDSU's dance marathon, and contributed to NDSU's day of service held annually on Martin Luther King Jr. Day. He has also partaken in Phi Chapter's Days of Giving, which has included volunteering for the Charism Food Pantry and at the New Life Center, which helps the homeless community with transitioning into the workforce.

Derek has been a significant contributor to the NDSU Greek Life community as well. He twice attended NDSU's Greek Leadership Conference, which covers topics such as Parliamentary Procedure, qualities of a leader, and ways to encourage discussion about tough topics.

Derek is also an experienced photographer. His work has been featured on campus, including Flakoll Gallery, the Memorial Union Gallery, and in the Memorial Union. Barry Hall, the premiere building for the College of Business, has a permanent installation.

During his time as a member of Phi Chapter he attended and helped organize numerous chapter retreats, executive board retreats, alumni banquets, and chapter recruitment seminars. He attended Theta Chi University twice. In January 2017, he attended Sasser Presidents Conference in Carmel, IN. For the 2015/2016 school year he received a Sherwood and Janet Roberts Blue Memorial Scholarship from The Foundation Chapter, and will be receiving one again for the 2017/2018 school year. He is also a member of the Deranian Society, which recognizes Chapter Presidents who commit to a monthly gift of $18.56 in support of the Sasser Presidents Conference upon graduation.

In the classroom, Derek has maintained a grade point average of 4.0, and is a member of both the Order of Omega and Phi Kappa Phi Honor societies. Graduating this May as a strategic communication major, Derek would like to pursue work with nonprofits. "I thrive on helping nonprofits advertise and promote their work and have an interest in event planning," said Derek.

Step Up to Fill a Vacancy!

We are looking to fill to vacancies at the 2018 Pig Banquet:

President-Elect

Counsel Member 3 Year-Term

"If you live within an hour or two of Φ chapter, I encourage you to step up to a leadership role in the alumni chapter," said Kelly Linster. "Please consider giving back to the fraternity that gave you so much. Your time and experience will continue to ensure that we have a balanced, solid group of leaders to move the chapter into the future. We meet approximately six times a year. Please contact me at 701-781-2035 or kellylinster@yahoo.com – if interested."

"I got involved on the Alumni Council as Treasurer in 2009," said Jason Gates. "I had no idea that a project of this magnitude was coming down the pike. But once we saw what AGR accomplished, we knew we could do something similar in recognition of our 100th anniversary. It's been challenging and required a lot of personal sacrifice. But to see the house now, and to have connected with over 300 alumni who supported this project, it's been very rewarding to be part of Phi Chapter's success."

"Although we've accomplished so much in a relatively short time, we still have a few punch list items to check off, including replacing a basement window well this spring and landscaping the exterior," added Gates. "Alumnus Chris Bergen has already stepped forward to provide all landscaping materials. That's just one more example of brothers offering a helping hand."

Special Giving

- 99 memorial gifts have been contributed to the chapter recognizing 22 brothers
- Over 110 new pledges or donations were made during the Centennial year

"My Theta Chi experience has meant the world to me," added Derek. "It has given me leadership opportunities, academic support, a large network of individuals, confidence, a home-away-from-home, personal support, and the opportunity to be that support for others who need it. Everyone is going through something at some point on some day, and being in Theta Chi has helped me to impact people on a more personal level. It has hands-down been one of the most valuable experiences of my life, and I will always be grateful for what it has given me."

Phi Chapter now boasts five total Colley Award recipients. Previous recipients include Roman E. Meyers (1934), Major General Larry F. Tanberg (1941), past Field Executive Cory C. Loveless (2011), and Kyle E. Sebesta (2013).

The Colley Award is named after fellow Phi Chapter brother, Reginald E.F. Colley (1915). Colley was a World War I veteran and past member of Theta Chi's board of directors, the Grand Chapter. As a member of Phi Chapter, Brother Colley developed a celebrated reputation as a campus, community and civic leader. He graduated in 1915 and eventually headed overseas to fight for the U.S. Army on the Western Front. Brother Colley died at the age of 39, but his legacy of leadership continues to inspire future generations of talented Theta Chis. Today, the Colley Award is treasured as the Fraternity's most prestigious collegiate honor.

"I am humbled to have won," said Derek. "Every time I even think about winning the Colley Award, a huge grin spreads across my face."

BRICK BY BRICK: THE RENOVATION OF THE HOUSE THAT BROTHERHOOD BUILT

By Cory Loveless, '12

The undergraduate "demo" crew of 2016

A fraternity is more than just a house. Full stop. This idea is very important to understand, and I chose to bookend my article with it for several reasons. I am fortunate to have traveled to visit several chapters of our fraternity around the country, and I can attest that even chapters of Theta Chi that are without a chapter house still enjoy the same bonds of lifelong, unwavering friendship as a chapter with a house.

That being said, anyone who has lived in a fraternity house can attest that there is something magical about it. The excitement of moving in, hopeful for a home experience at college, is equally matched by the happiness upon moving out, knowing that you've found one. The almost-instant nostalgia sets in as a Theta Chi walks out the front door of 1307 North University Drive for the last time as a resident. It is very easy while admiring the stately façade of our impressive Tudor home to recall late night conversations, shared meals, elaborate pranks, group study sessions, movie screenings, and all the trimmings of a full collegiate experience. Whether it was one quarter, one semester, or 4 years, anyone who has lived in the "House that Brotherhood Built" likely has a story about it. Sometimes the people who didn't live there have even better ones.

In the summer of 2016, permits had finally been issued to begin work on the renovation of the Phi Chapter house. The renovation was a result of a centennial campaign effort to update critical life safety issues as well as provide a modern, functional, and competitive chapter house for our undergraduate brothers. As a seasonally-unemployed teacher in the area, I volunteered to help perform some of the "unskilled labor" along with a group of undergraduate brothers. It was a very interesting and, at times, challenging summer. We encountered several challenges that a layman like myself did not anticipate. For example, the ceiling of the dining room was comprised of a thin layer of concrete that was much more difficult to remove and very heavy. It was also an opportunity for us to use several pieces of heavy equipment, such as a floor saw to cut new paths for plumbing in the basement. That being said, at the end of the summer all workers still thankfully possessed all of their digits. Throughout the entire project we were guided by the expertise and know-how of brother Russ Handegard, who, despite having to instruct a bunch of "city boys" who lacked some relevant experience, remained patient with our questions throughout the project.

A summary of the work done in the summer of 2016 included a complete gutting of the interior structure, including all wall, ceiling, and floor coverings; removal of all boiler heat pipes, cutting new paths in the concrete floor in the basement for plumbing; removal of the north chimney; and a cleaning out of the coal bin complete with a ceremonial Hamm's light.

The 2nd floor suite has had the middle wall removed and upholstered bench seat added

Throughout the school year, progress was made at the chapter house as brother Handegard monitored the contractors to finish the rest of the job. The fire escape on the north side was replaced by a second, north stair tower. The staircase from main up toward the residences on 2nd and 3rd was removed as a result, and the stairway to the 4th floor moved approximately 10 feet south in what used to be part of the coat-of-arms room

NEWS FROM UNDERGRADUATE PRESIDENT

Q1. How many actives are there?

A. After fall 2017 graduation, we have 56 members.

Q2. What's the chapter's GPA?

A. We've improved from a 3.019 to a 3.126 this fall, with 12 members earning a 4.0.

Q3. What's it like moving into the new house?

A. A lot of members were excited to move in as soon as the house opened before fall 2017 semester. Guys were quick to move in couches and chairs - video and board games soon followed. Brotherhood has certainly strengthened amongst the chapter with the house being opened. It makes recruitment easier since we can show off a beautiful new home. The actives are currently in the process of planning to paint bedroom walls to bring even more character to the house. As someone who has lived in both the "old" and new house, it is a completely different atmosphere. It's interesting having older alumni come back and reminisce about the house they knew and look in awe at the new one. Looking towards fall 2018 semester, we are starting a waitlist for those that want to move in.

Q4. How many guys went to Frisco for the championship?

A. We had a group of seven to eight actives drive down for the game. Luckily, they were able to find some Theta Chi alumni celebrating the game. Down in Texas, people call Frisco the "new" Fargo since Bison fans are migrating south every year for the championship game.

Q5. What did we do for Homecoming?

A. We went to Homecoming with Delta Delta Delta, a new sorority that was just introduced this past year. We participated in float building and socials to help introduce them to campus.

Q6. What volunteering has the chapter been involved in?

A. This past year, the active chapter participated in "No Shave November," a month where actives go without shaving their facial hair to raise awareness and money for cancer. Collectively, the chapter raised $1,051 for this event. We also partnered with our national philanthropy - the USO - to conduct a waffle feed at the Lutheran Center, raising $777.

Q7. How has recruitment gone with the new house?

A. Having the house for recruitment has really helped bring in more potential new members. We've brought back indoor mini-golf so actives can meet potential new members and prospects get a great house tour. Guys are always hanging out in the new social rooms, so it's easy for new guys to come over.

With the opening of the new house, I'm excited to see where the chapter will go next. It's amazing to see alumni who have long since graduated still care so much about the fraternity; it resonates that Theta Chi is for life. It's a long list of those who have helped work on the house and donated to the effort. I want to thank anyone and everyone who has had a hand in it. If you have any questions or need help from the chapter, please don't hesitate to email me at anthony.kimlinger@ndsu.edu and the phone booth. The entire infrastructure of the building has been redone - new sewer pipes, new electrical work, new boiler pipes, new appliances, and new lighting.

Towards the end of the summer of 2017, much of the furniture, flooring, and fixtures were delivered. The stairwell concrete was poured, the carpet tiles were delivered and installed, and the beds set-up, all with the help of undergraduate and alumnus volunteers. Much of the cost of the project was reduced because of this volunteer force, and rightfully so as "brotherhood" rebuild the home that brotherhood originally built!

As I mentioned at the beginning of the article: the fact that we have a beautiful house built with care is a blessing separate from the truth that our fraternal bonds are for life. It is not necessary for us to share a roof over our heads, but only necessary that we uphold the oaths we all take to help one another and serve our community. As I see and hear more stories of men connected by brotherhood weathering the storms of grief, illness, depression, anger, and obstacles in their lives together, I am convinced that Theta Chi is a powerful and relevant organization. If the house serves as an entry point or a physical embodiment of Theta Chi, that is wonderful. But it's what you will find within that will make the building a home.

Fraternally,
Cory

BISON VICTORIOUS & RECOVERED!

You may or may not know that the Miller Bison head went AWOL for a few days during summer renovation. As you can imagine, it caused a stir. After a few phone calls to key individuals-in-the-know, it miraculously reappeared unscathed. Here you see a few brothers reinstalling it to a new and higher, prominent location in the chapter house. The heist and eventual recovery will make great stories for years to come.
